I Hear Music . . .

The Songs of Worthington High School

The staff of the 1960 CARDINAL hopes to present to you an accurate and colorful picture of Worthington High School life through the songs which are so much a part of our school. It has been said that through music spirits immortal speak the message that makes the world weep, and laugh, and wonder, and worship. So we hope our music will affect you. We invite you to share our laughter and tears, our fun and study, our days at Worthington High School.

*The 1960 Cardinal
Worthington High School
Worthington, Ohio*

Overture

Caps and gowns, diplomas, and the majestic strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" are not far away for the class of 1960. Soon their days at W.H.S. will be only memories and they will go forth into the future filled with ambition and hope. All the magic of youth and joy of life will be theirs. Because this land of opportunity belongs to those who have the strength, faith, and enthusiasm to make it theirs, the class of 1960 will surely find fulfillment of their dreams and ambitions in the future.

"Pomp and Circumstance"

Seniors try on caps and gowns in preparation for the big Day.

Seniors again boost the treasury with chips and corn sales.

"Memories Are Made of This"

Mad scramble to get to class.

As the W.H.S. underclassmen live each hour of each day of their high school life, they are collecting memories which will be very precious to them in the years to come. "These are the best years of your life," our parents keep telling us. Sometimes, when things go wrong, we don't believe them. Most of the time, however, when we are happy and healthy, having fun, working hard, and accomplishing much, we will all agree. Years at W.H.S. are truly golden years for us. They are packed full of dances, sports events, club activities, class plays, choir, orchestra and band concerts, good feelings of work well done when we get an A on an English theme or solve a rough geometry problem. Take part in all these things from day to day, for memories are made of this.

"School Days"

Although the days of the hickory stick are past, "reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic" are still the most important part of W.H.S. endeavor. When the dances and football games are over and long forgotten, members of the class of 1960 will still be profiting by the learning they received at W.H.S. But most of all, when they remember their school days, they will also remember their teachers—people who taught them knowledge from books and wisdom from example.

"How Now Brown Cow . . ."—speech class learning to articulate.

Experimenting with Experiments . . . Chemistry students increase knowledge.

Driver's education students learning how it's done.

"Stand Up and Cheer"

Cross-Country Triad—"... Into the wild blue yonder."

"Stand up and cheer, cheer loud and long for dear old Worthington . . ." How often have you heard these words. The band playing, the cheerleaders keeping time with their red and white shakers, and scores of excited, enthusiastic fans on their feet singing at the top of their lungs. It's a happy, healthy picture—a picture of rivalry tempered with sportsmanship, which is very much a part of W.H.S. life. Although we don't always win, we always play and cheer as hard as we can, striving for "the red and blue above the rest."

G R R R R.....

"No Man

J. T. Mole rallies his students in the Thespian production, "Passion on the Rocks."

"No man is an island, no man stands alone . . ." These words are very familiar ones to those who have been members of the W.H.S. mixed choir, and to those who have enjoyed their music. What do you think of when you hear those words? Maybe it's the football team, or Science Club, or Hi-Y, or choir, or F.T.A. We all think of something—some group of which we are a part. Whether you have some special talent—like singing, playing an instrument, or twirling a baton—or whether you are interested in math, home economics, or the business world, there is a place for you. For at W.H.S., no man stands alone.

Brazing bonfire reflects the spirit of W.H.S. fans before the homecoming game

"It's a Great Day"

The CARDINAL Queen Dance, the Homecoming game with its bonfire and dance, the junior and senior class plays, the operetta—all these are great days at Worthington High School. They are the special events which will stand out in your high school memories.

The mixer gives students in the high school an opportunity to get acquainted

I Am Worthington

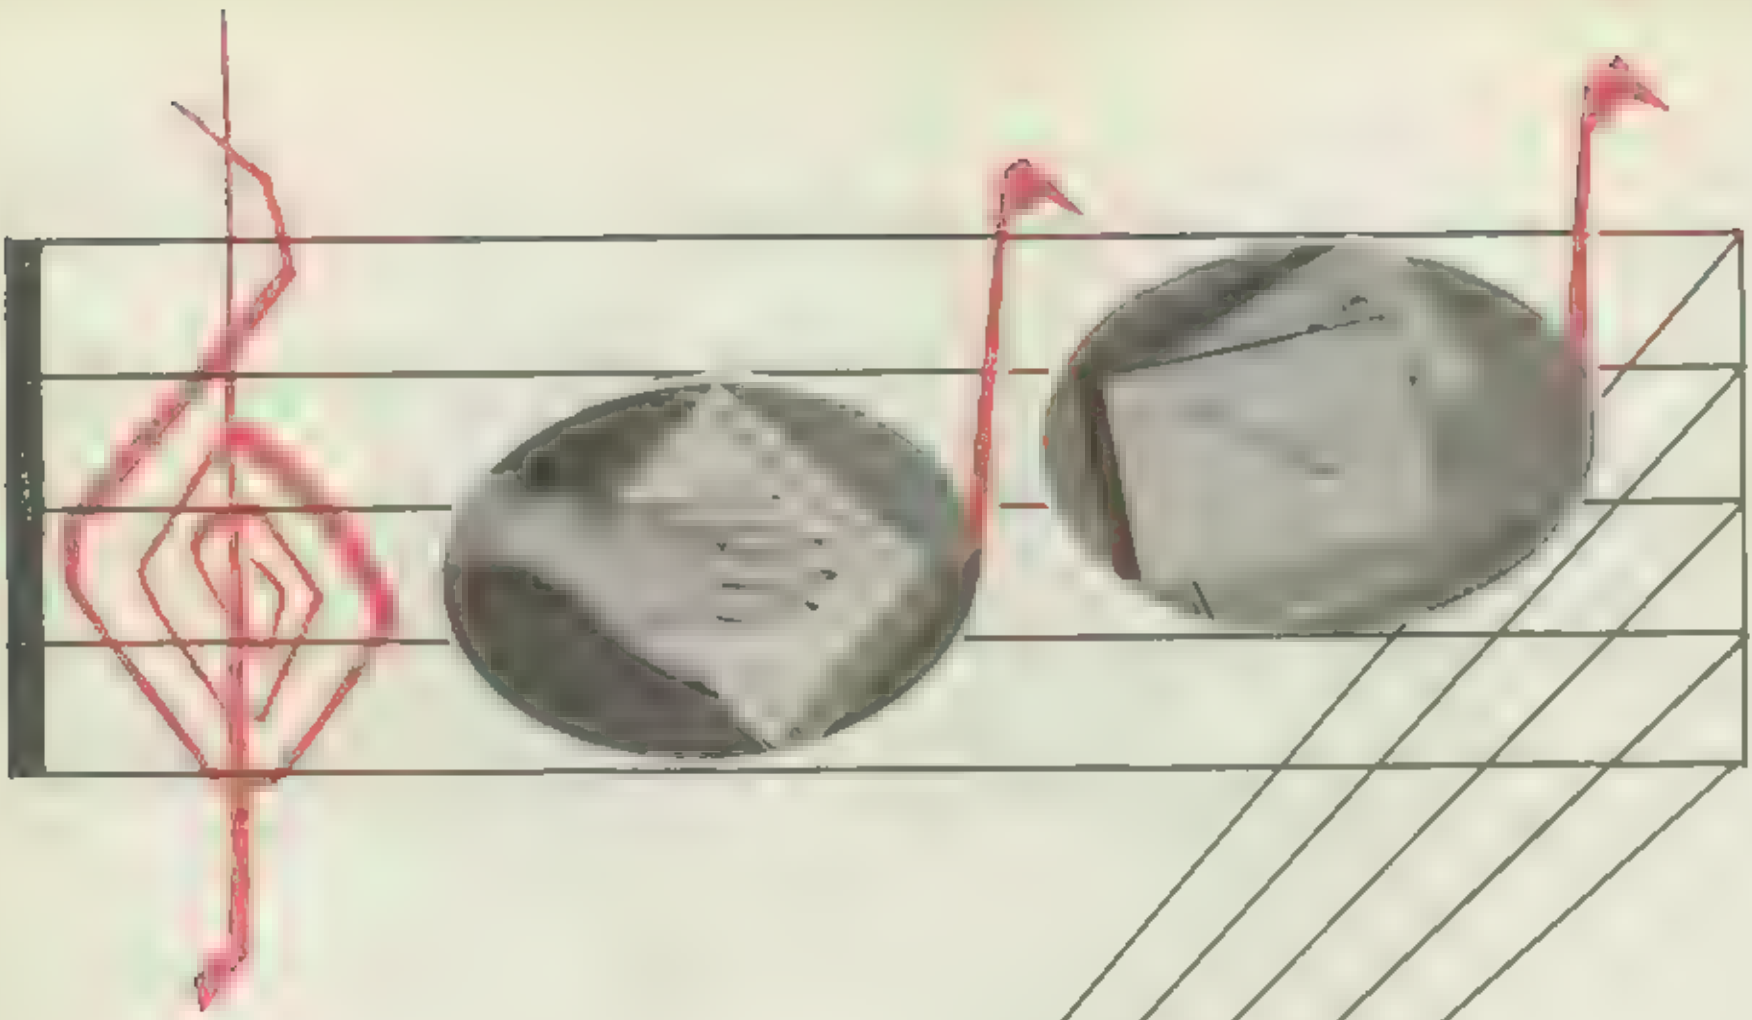

High School . . .

I am Worthington High School. Only a building to those who pass by on the road outside; but, to those who have spent four wonderful, exciting years in my world of fun and study, I am a place to grow in wisdom, knowledge, and years.

From the first fall mixer to graduation day, I am the creator of the best that is in W.H.S. students, they are the creator of the best that is in me.

Every year from September to June I hear music . . . the songs of W.H.S. These are the songs I hear—songs of royalty, rivalry, and romance, songs of "reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic." I hope you enjoy my concert, for these are your songs, it is you who have lived, and loved, and laughed through all these memorable days.

My name is Marvin; I'm a mouse. My address is Worthington High School. My claim to fame: I have watched the class of 1960 as they lived their high school years from their first fall mixer to graduation.

I remember in the year 1957, they were just starting out—"Freshmen," they were called and were they ever busy. George Dambach headed the class as president, and Kay Carpenter and Sally Jiek were elected Homecoming and Halloween attendants. There were some exciting and enjoyable activities that year, such as the car wash, the magazine sale, and the "Freshman Frolic" at Holiday Hill.

Then it was 1958 and with that year came the "Sophomore Swing" and the fruitcake sale. John Young was president then and Kay Carpenter and Billie Tharp represented the class as Homecoming and Halloween attendants.

In 1959 they were juniors, and their every thought turned to ribbon candy, concession stand, the Cardinal Booster drive and their dance "The First Day of Spring." Two more events added to the junior calendar were the class play, "We Were Young That Year," and the Junior-Senior Prom, "Fete Francais." Dick Faul was class president and Penny Savage and Martha Berg were Homecoming and Halloween attendants. Representatives to the CARDINAL Queen court were Barbara Chacey and Kay Carpenter.

And then, at last, they were seniors. Their minds were filled with Chips and Corn, various dinners, and the sale of everything from stationery to salt water taffy. Another class play was on the agenda and this time "My Sister Eileen" was chosen. Leading the class this year were Earl Bader as Student Body President and Chris Caudill as class president. Sherry Davis was Homecoming Queen and senior attendant was Kay Carpenter. Halloween Queen was Penny Savage and her attendant was Patsy Shoemaker.

Then, as Easter time rolled around, came the long-awaited senior trip. The class of '60 spent five wonderful and exciting days in New York City and Washington D.C. Soon after the trip came commencement and the end of high school life for 157 seniors.

The halls seem empty to me, now that the class of 1960 has come and gone. I know I shall never forget all my friends, and I hope they will think of me now and then as they assume their places in the world of tomorrow.

Juniors

Projects got into full swing this year for the Junior Class; and, as their funds increased, so did their enthusiasm for their Senior Class Trip. The juniors were especially fortunate during the week of the Ohio State Fair, for through the able advisorship of Mr. Hammill, they were able to secure positions as ushers at the coliseum. Other projects included magazine sales, concession stand, Halloween floats, and the Junior-Senior Prom, as the climax to the year. Under the determined leadership of Bob McBride, Pres.; Sally Tangeman, Vice-Pres. in charge of projects; Carin Stout, Vice Pres. in charge of points; Julie Bird, Secretary and Sandy Everhart, Treasurer all of these accomplishments during the 1959-1960 school year were made possible.

Sophomores

Winning the respect of the entire school, the Sophomore Class excelled in every field their last year as underclassmen. Academically, the Sophomores supported the honor roll and many enjoyed classes in biology, language, math and English. Socially, the Sophomore girls joined Y-Teens and G.A.A., and many boys joined Hi-Y and various other clubs depending on individual interest. Sportswise, the Sophomores were especially talented. Our football, wrestling, swimming, cross-country, basketball and baseball teams had many excellent Sophomore participants.

Dave Howell, President; Chic Dambach, Vice-President; Nancy Learned, Secretary; and Mike Cochran, Treasurer were elected by their fellow students to lead them through the year, concentrating on financial achievement. The Sophomores were first prize winners in the Halloween Parade and received $50 for their clever float. Looking forward to their junior year, the Sophomores plan for the future.

Faculty

Administration

Mr. H. C. McCord, Superintendent of the Worthington Schools, has been a vital part of this school system since 1930. Before becoming superintendent, Mr. McCord was a teacher and principal in the high school. He holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts from Ohio State University.

"Your educational experience is at the crossroads. You have been given the privilege by this community and your parents to complete the first twelve years of your education. What you do in the future to prepare for your life's work is in your hands. I congratulate you on your many achievements and wish you much success in the decisions that lie ahead and stand ready to give you assistance at any time."

Mr. Earl W. Lane began in the Worthington School system in 1953 as a math and science teacher. Acting as assistant principal in charge of attendance, Mr. Lane also is a guidance counselor. He attended Ohio University and Ohio State where he obtained a Bachelor and Masters degree in Education.

"It has been a real pleasure to work with the class of 1960. Congratulations to each of you for your many achievements at W.H.S. and sincere wishes for happiness and success in the years ahead."

Mr. Glenn D. Williams became principal of Worthington High School in 1956. He has been a teacher in high school since 1950. Mr. Williams has achieved a Bachelor of Arts, and a Master of Arts degree.

"May I take this opportunity to wish each senior in the class of 1960 the very best of luck and the greatest success in life. May you always remember your high school days as happy and profitable days. If there is anything that the faculty at Worthington High School can do to aid you in the future please do not hesitate to call upon us. Once again, may the fortunes of a richly spent life be yours."

Coach Sabock and some players watch during a moment of tense action. Worthington has the ball, and "this looks like a winner!"

Football

The Worthington Cardinal gridiron squad finished the 1959-1960 season with a surprisingly good record. With their upset victories over Urbana and Bexley and other wins, the boys performed admirably in spite of recurring injuries. Despite the loss of some valuable seniors, Coach Ralph Sabock anticipates a good season next year due to the outstanding underclassmen. Good luck fellas!

Worthington's wrestling squad, led by Captain Jim Davis and Coaches Dave Crockett and Len Fontes, began the 1959-1960 season with a victory over Arlington. The mat men were victorious in eleven out of eleven dual meets against such top-ranking teams as Whitehall, Franklin Heights, and Mad River. They received their only two defeats of the season in quadrangular meets at the hands of the Whitehall squad, whom the W.H.S. wrestlers defeated in three out of five matches. One of the highlights of the season was the Worthington Invitational, at which the W.H.S. team received the trophy for first place.

"Living a Second Childhood" was the theme of the Y-Teen Initiation this year. The Sadie Hawkins Dance yielded many cans of food as well as many cases of hay-fever. As usual, the Christmas Formal was a howling success. The annual Style Show revealed a glimpse into the future along the fashion line. A successful year was climaxed with a banquet at which the officers for the coming year were announced.

Future Nurses' Club, led by Barb Green, President, started the year with its annual picnic as the October meeting. The November meeting was highlighted by a movie, "Helping Hands For Julie."

During the month of December, activities included a workshop making Christmas Stockings for hospital patients and a caroling party at Harding Sanitarium. Other projects were the Teens Against Polio basketball game, from which all proceeds went to the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis and the Mother-Daughter Tea.

SEATED: Bob Hoffner, President. STANDING: Cindy H. Brink, Scribe; Doug Harrison, Treasurer; and Martha Potter, Secretary.

The 1959-1960 school season was a busy one for the Worthington High School chapter of the National Thespian Society. Things started rolling in October when the group presented an original skit, "Passion on the Rocks," for a football canteen. In November, Thespians, in connection with the Senior Class, presented the hilarious modern comedy, MY SISTER ELLEEN. Many seniors were made eligible for membership by their service in the cast and on committees for this play, so an initiation was held soon after the performance. Another canteen skit, "Peter Gone," and a Sixteenth Century morality play, "Everyman" were on the agenda for the spring months. After the Junior Class Play in April, the juniors, who will be next year's Thespians, were initiated.

Future Business Leaders of America

Guided by President, Lonie Wehr, and her corps of officers, FBLA strove hard throughout the school year to achieve the goal of "promoting a greater interest in and knowledge of the business world." The members were kept very busy mimeographing materials for other clubs and making a series of field trips to business firms. Some other projects were sponsoring the Poindexter Village Christmas project and sending members to state and national FBLA conventions.

Cardinal

The Cardinal Yearbook staff worked many long hours during the school year. The girls had a lot of fun and also accomplished their goal under the able leadership of Sue Smith, Editor. The assistant editor for 1960 was Pam Harmon. Associate editors Abbie Harding, Diane Teets, Patsy Shoemaker, Sherry Bott, and Nancy Rehmert and Index Editor, Cindy Hilbrink, were the chief assistants in the weekly Saturday morning work sessions. Other members of the editorial staff were Barbara Chacey and Jackie Baxter, senior editors; Linda Nelson, faculty editor; and Jean Lehman, photography editor.

"Music, Music, Music"

The Senior Boys' Trio, composed of Steve Enz, John Young, and Chris Caudill made numerous appearances during their last year together including the Student Body, Methodist Mens' Club and various teachers' meetings. The highlight of their career came when they sang there before Urbana in the exchange concert. The boys have styled themselves after the popular Kingston Trio. Their sterling accompaniment was provided by pianist, John Dawson.

Girl's Glee Club is composed of Freshman girls interested in choral singing. Their fine group sang for the Student Body at the Thanksgiving Assembly and also entertained other groups during the year.

Junior Class Play

"We Were Young That Year"

What happened to Nancy and Andy? Most people say it was just an ordinary thing. Something that happens to all of us—the first time we fall in love. But as Nancy says, "When it happens to you, it seems different."

This story of teenage love was presented by the class of 1960 on April 10 and 11, 1959. WE WERE YOUNG THAT YEAR was an imaginative, modern comedy, with simple scenery and contemporary costumes.

Nancy spoke directly to the audience, and the scenes materialize as she describes them. In her life that year were Prudy and Steve, who were engaged; Joe, Ernie, and Betsy, three comics with a joke book; Larry, a fraternity man; glamorous Marsha; understanding Aunt Sally; a space-crazy younger brother; and, of course—Andy. WE WERE YOUNG THAT YEAR was an amusing, touching drama of teenagers.

Queen Jane

THE CARDINAL QUEEN—Business Manager Dick Faul, crowns Queen Julie amid cheers and excitement

Cardinal Queen

Penny

This year's Cardinal Queen, Miss Julie Bird, was chosen by a panel of judges consisting of the following personalities: Dean Lewis, WBNS Radio disc jockey; Mrs. Paula McGuire, WBNS Radio's Betty Newton; and Mrs. June Wells Dill, Columbus Dispatch fashion writer. The seven finalists were judged on charm, facial beauty, intelligence, over-all beauty, poise, taste shown in dress and voice quality.

After the interviews, the results of the contest were placed in a sealed envelope by the judges and were not opened until the night of the dance. Nancy Pattison, the 1959 Cardinal Queen, bestowed the traditional necklace on Queen Julie and the 1959-1960 Cardinal Business Manager, Dick Faul, crowned her with a kiss.

In a "Mardi Gras" atmosphere, Queen Julie and her favorite beau, John Young, danced to her chosen song, "Moonglow" to add a thrilling climax to an unforgettable evening.

Finale

As the final curtain falls upon the 1960 CARD NAL's concert of the songs of Worthington High School, it is only fitting that the cast and crews should take a bow. First of all the cast—the students and teachers of W.H.S. For your support and cooperation without which there could have been no yearbook, my staff and I sincerely thank you. Next a round of applause is due for faithful and tireless staff members Sherry Bott, Diane Teets, Abbe Harding, Nancy Rehmer, Patsy Shoemaker, and Cindy Hubink, who spent just about every Saturday morning from September through March putting together the pictures and words which make up the 1960 CARD NAL.

Thanks also to Don Robson, Art Editor, Linda Nelson, Faculty Editor, Jackie Baxter and Barb Chancy, Senior Editors, and Jeanne Letman, Photo Editor, who all helped so much on the editorial staff. Special thanks to Dick Faul, Business Manager, Spike Bonnell, his able assistant, and the entire Business Staff for spending many hours selling subscriptions and ads to finance this year's yearbook.

A very special curtain call is in order for Pam Harman, my capable assistant Editor, for her conscientious work in Saturday morning work sessions and on this year's CARD NAL Queen Dance. The entire staff of the 1960 CARD NAL owes a debt of gratitude to our advisor, Mr. Phipps, and to Mr. Williams for their help and advice throughout the year.

We of the 1960 CARD NAL staff sincerely hope that this record of a year's events will always bring to mind many happy memories of your high school life and that you have enjoyed reading it as much as we have enjoyed compiling it for you.
